

Public International Law perspectives on the prosecution of Daesh's crimes against women and girls before international jurisdictions

Public Hearing of the Committee on Legal Affairs and the Committee on Women's Rights

13 October 2016

ASP 3E2
11:00-12.30

Draft Programme

11:00-11:10	Opening remarks <ul style="list-style-type: none">• JURI and FEMM Chairs
11:10-11:25	Prosecution of Daesh's crimes against women and girls before international jurisdictions <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Mr Jerome de Hemptinne, Researcher, Geneva academy for international humanitarian law and human rights law
11:25-11:40	The Gender of Justice: The Prosecution of Sexual Violence in Armed Conflict <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Dr. Kristen Campbell, Goldsmiths' College
11:40-11:55	International Humanitarian Law and non-state actors: accountability for Daesh's crimes against women and girls <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Prof. Dr. Cedric Ryngaert, University of Utrecht
11:55-12:20	Q&A session
12:20-12:30	Closing Remarks <ul style="list-style-type: none">• JURI and FEMM Chairs